

Annexe 1: List of major information systems (IS) used at USB:

Name of the IS	Short IS description	Constituent parts using the IS
Aleph	The Aleph library system, which is used by many universities and libraries, is used to provide library services.	All constituent parts
AMI	Asset record keeping of buildings and rooms. Monitors the inventory of m2 of individual buildings at JU.	All constituent parts
AT - Dormitories	Accommodation system used for booking and payments for accommodation in USB dormitories.	All constituent parts
Data Warehouse	Data warehouse used to create analyses and reports using BI.	All constituent parts
EGJE	HR and payroll agenda is provided by the EGJE system, which enables all standard operations related to payroll processing and payroll records. Contains functionalities for recording personal data of employees, attendance planning, payroll processing, employee evaluation and benefits management, database of job applicants, etc.	All constituent parts
E-learning	E-learning portal Moodle.	All constituent parts apart from the Faculty of Education. FEd using separately.
IDM	Management of identities and its accounts at USB.	All constituent parts
iFIS	The financial information system is a commercial ERP system iFIS covering the economic agendas of the institution. The system is supplied by BBM Ltd. The basic modules include IS Core, Administration and Code Lists, General Ledger, Controlling, Finance and Assets. The system is supplemented by several modules (e.g., WEB Mailer, Register of Contracts, Plan and Budget, Public Procurement and others). USB uses iFIS for economic and administrative agendas: accounting, finance, asset management, file service, contract register and public procurement.	All constituent parts
IPS	USB internal payment system (IPS) is used for non-cash payments for services provided within the USB to their users.	All constituent parts
IS HAP	Academic staff evaluation system is a tool used to evaluate academic staff in the educational and creative field. The system records data on activities and outputs of employees during a predefined time.	All constituent parts

IS STAG	IS STAG Information System is used at USB to provide information support for the study agenda. It is used by both students and academic staff. IS STAG database can be accessed through dedicated clients located at USB workplaces or via the university website. The system currently provides the following user functions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - complete student records (personal data and their course of study) - input and editing of study plans (including links to course blocks and obligatory courses) - input and editing of degree programmes (including links to programme combinations) - input and editing the course syllabi (including links to the type of the course and available capacity) - input and editing of the timetable (including collision checks, searching for data according to various criteria) - data exchange between IS STAG and the timetabling system - classroom booking system for events, exams, admission procedures etc. - announcing examination dates - registration for the announced examination dates - teaching quality evaluation system 	All faculties
JIS	A unified identification and access system ensuring security of the buildings of the University of South Bohemia.	All constituent parts
KaS	Camera system	All constituent parts
Kredit	A system used for ordering and payments for meals in the cafeteria of the University of South Bohemia.	All constituent parts
Verso modules	VERSO application and integration platform enables the integration of heterogeneous information systems and thus creates a unified interface to enter and display data. The following add-on modules are used on this platform at USB: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - OBD - personal bibliographic database for managing publishing, research and development activities. Within USB, the OBD system is used to support science and research publishing activities; it is a search and reporting database of publishing activities. - Requests - creating and approving of bookings and orders - Liquidation sheets - circulation and approval of invoices - Mobility - recording mobility of students and staff - LLL - registration of activities in the field of lifelong learning and the University of the 3rd Age - CPSSP - database of students and applicants with special needs. 	OBD: All constituent parts Requests: All constituent parts Liquidation sheets: All constituent parts Mobility: All constituent parts LLL: All constituent parts CPSSP: All constituent parts
Office 365	Office suite, e-mail and groupware services.	All constituent parts
SafeQ	Print and copy management.	All constituent parts
StuduJU	Mobile application for students and teachers.	All constituent parts